

So, You Don't Like the Fact That God Controls Your Life?

If you don't like the fact that God controls your life, the question is, Why don't you like it?

Who in the universe would be the best One to guide your life?

Who in the universe knows exactly what you need to go through to become perfect?

Who created you?

Who died for you?

In your lifetime, how many people have died for you?

Who has the authority, by His death on the cross, to put His disposition and character in you?

Who loves you more than your parents, your spouse, your children or your friends?

Who, other than God, would you prefer to control your life? Would you pick yourself?

Are you upset with God because He puts you – and everyone else - through trials, tribulation, and much difficulty in your life?

Do you have a better plan on how to motivate you – or anyone else – into changing their behavior? If so, state what your plan is.

Are you upset because there are always consequences to our wrong decisions?

What will be the end result of God's control over your life?

God says it will be - - - Peace!

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” John 14:27

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” John 16:33

What happens if we don't understand “the things that make for our peace”?

“If you had known. . . in this your day, the things that make for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.” Luke 19:42

“And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

“And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.” 2 Thess 2;10,11

We lose even the truth we once had.

We know full well that God considers us “clay” in His hands – the hands of the Potter:

“Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in my hand. . .”
Jeremiah 18:7

“Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor?” Romans 9:21

And what is God's process and goal?

“What if God, willing to show His wrath (allowing us to reap what we have sown), and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

“And that He might make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He had afore prepared unto glory.” Romans 9:22,23

God allows us to reap what we have sown (His wrath), in order to “make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of lovingkindness (the proper translation), that He had before prepared unto glory.” From the very beginning this was God's plan: creation – trouble – to bring the recognition of our need for God to run our life – leading to complete trust in God - culminating in the peace of God and His loving kindness toward us – for His glory!

Why Tsarnaev, Lanza, Sirhan Sirhan, James Earl Ray, Andrew Wakefield (and All the Rest of Us) NEED the Lord.

Not because they're guilty – but because they are INNOCENT!

“End Times” are fast upon us. Right now the Trans-Pacific Trade Partnership (TPP) is being thrust upon us and will have disastrous effects on our country, our jobs and our rights. It will provide the Path for a Global Government

Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP): Job Loss, Lower Wages, and Higher Drug Prices

Have you heard? The TPP is a massive, controversial "free trade" agreement currently being pushed by big corporations and negotiated behind closed doors by officials from the United States and 11 other countries – Australia, Brunei, Canada, Chile, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, Singapore, and Vietnam.

The TPP would expand the North American Free Trade Agreement \(NAFTA\) "trade" pact model that has spurred massive U.S. trade deficits and job loss, downward pressure on wages, unprecedented levels of inequality and new floods of agricultural imports. The TPP not only replicates, but also expands NAFTA's special protections for firms that offshore U.S. jobs. And U.S. TPP negotiators literally used the 2011 Korea FTA – under which exports have fallen and trade deficits have surged – as the template for the TPP.

In one fell swoop, this secretive deal could:

- offshore American jobs and increase income inequality,
 - jack up the cost of medicines
 - sneak in SOPA-like threats to Internet freedom,
 - and empower corporations to attack our environmental and health safeguards.
- expose the U.S. to unsafe food and products,
 - roll back Wall Street reforms,
 - ban Buy American policies needed to create green jobs,

Although it is called a "free trade" agreement, the TPP is not mainly about trade. Of TPP's 29 draft chapters, only five deal with traditional trade issues. One chapter would provide incentives to offshore jobs to low-wage countries. Many would impose limits on government policies that we rely on in our daily lives for safe food, a clean environment, and more. Our domestic federal, state and local policies would be required to comply with TPP rules.

The TPP would even elevate individual foreign firms to equal status with sovereign nations, empowering them to privately enforce new rights and privileges, provided by the pact, by dragging governments to foreign tribunals to challenge public interest policies that they claim frustrate their expectations. The tribunals would be authorized to order taxpayer compensation to the foreign corporations for the "expected future profits" they surmise would be inhibited by the challenged policies.

We only know about the TPP's threats thanks to leaks – the public is not allowed to see the draft TPP text. Even members of Congress, after being denied the text for years, are now only provided limited access. Meanwhile, more than 500 official corporate "trade advisors" have special access. The TPP has been under negotiation for six years, and the Obama administration wants to sign the deal this year. Opposition to the TPP is growing at home and in many of the other countries involved.

The North American Union

Right now, the border between the U.S. and Mexico is wide open. It is predicted that Mexico will take back the Southwestern United States, and bring us all the crime and corruption now running full sway in Mexico: kidnappings and murders of private citizens for ransom, unabated drug trafficking, corrupt police and other government officials who only act if given a bribe, youth and adults being kidnapped and murdered for their organs, and every other type of crime.

The U.S. and Canada already have many agreements. When we are merged with Canada, we will be forced to abide by their laws that give far less liberty than U.S. laws. For instance, in Canada, you receive a prison sentence for questioning the Jewish version of the Holocaust. In Canada, you may be tried before a Human Rights Tribunal, the proceedings of which do not allow the defendant to know what charges are being brought against him or her, and no defense is allowed. Furthermore, Canada is still part of the British Empire and is being ruled from behind the scenes by a Governor appointed by England

At the height of its power, the British Empire covered over 33,7 million square kilometers (almost a quarter of the Earth's total land area), with population of over 458 million (20% of the world's population of the time). It was often said that "the sun never sets on the British Empire" because its span across the globe ensured that the Sun was always shining on at least one of its numerous territories.

. The various countries in the "old" British Empire have been given their "independence" only for "show" - - to allow each nation a vote in the United Nations. Therefore, the UK gets around 40 votes, rather than just One!

Mandatory Vaccinations in California

The health committee in California's Senate has endorsed a bill to eliminate all exemptions for vaccinations for children, bringing about Mandatory Vaccinations – FORCED vaccinations – on ALL children in California.

Vaccinations are neither safe nor effective. They maim and kill children and adults, and they don't even work.

What happens when researchers make the link between vaccinations and autism?

Dr. Andrew Wakefield, a British surgeon and medical researcher, co-authored a medical paper in 1998 that suggested a link between vaccinations, autism and bowel disease. The paper was published in the prestigious journal Lancet, a peer-reviewed journal, meaning that all medical papers must be reviewed by a number of medical doctors and/or medical researchers in the same field before being cleared for publication.

The article reported on 13 children whose autism or bowel disease began shortly after the child was vaccinated, according to reports either by the child's parents, or the child's pediatrician. At the end of the article, the authors stated the "more research is needed" to prove this hypothesis.

When the paper was published, the pharmaceutical companies were enraged because parents in England stopped vaccinating their children and the profits of the drug companies' vaccine divisions plummeted. After 6 years of intense pressure from the drug companies on the Lancet editorial board, the board finally caved in and withdrew the article, stating it was "fraudulent."

The drug companies were not satisfied, however. They were out for blood. Through intensive lobbying against the medical board, they were successful in removing Dr. Wakefield's medical license and the medical license of another one of the co-authors, Prof. John Walker-Smith. The other co-authors cowardly retracted all support for the article. (In 2012, after an 8-year court battle, Walker-Smith has been exonerated and his medical license restored.)

This is the viciousness of the drug companies toward a doctor who just "suggests" that there might be link between vaccinations, autism and bowel disease.

It's similar to one's treatment for questioning the Jewish version of the Holocaust. The Jews will CRUSH you!

The Boston Bombing

The assumption of “justice” in American courts was in vogue for centuries. But not any more. Dzhokhar Tsarnaev has been convicted of the Boston Bombing. His older brother, Tamerlan, after being arrested, was murdered by the police who ran over him repeatedly with their police car. The police also tried to kill Dzhokhar by shooting him repeatedly, but he survived.

At the beginning of the trial, before evidence was presented, newspaper reports revealed that the judge had already said Dzhokhar was guilty, even though he pleaded innocent. Furthermore, his attorney, in her closing remarks ADMITTED that Dzhokhar was guilty and blamed the crime on his older brother who was murdered by the police.

The Tsarnaev brothers were nothing more than “patsies” for the government. They had been forcefully recruited by the U.S. government as informants because they were immigrants from Chechnya, a tiny country, on the border of Russia, that was previously part of the Soviet Union. Chechnya is yet another country that the U.S. is trying to infiltrate and take over because of its strategic location on Russia’s border. The U.S. is surrounding Russia on all sides with military bases in preparation for World War III against Russia and its allies.

The Boston Bombing was a False Flag operation. The loud speakers were announcing repeatedly, “This is a drill” - - and then the smoke bomb went off. Many Craft International personnel, all dressed in black shirts with khaki pants, and many carrying backpacks of the same type as the one in which the bomb exploded, are seen in the early pictures immediately after the explosion.

Craft International is a private corporation that, according to its website “provides the best security, defense, and combat weapons training in the world to military, police, corporate and civilian clients. In the pictures taken during the chaos of the “bombing.” The backpacks carried by the Craft International personnel were black with a white rectangular patch on the top portion of the back, the very same type as the one holding the bomb.

The Tsarnaev brothers’ backpacks were clearly different from the one that held the bomb. In one picture we see one particular Craft International employee wearing a “signature” backpack, and a few frames later we see him running from the “bomb” site WITHOUT his backpack.

The Boston Bombing was the work of the U.S. government, as yet another false flag attack to frighten the American public into accepting more and more “security” which means the loss of more and more rights.

No one died in the Boston Bombing, and no one was injured. They were all crisis actors. Look up on the internet: www.crisisactors.com and see where they all came from.

Tamerlan Tsarnaev is already dead, murdered by the police running over him repeatedly with their police car. And now the death penalty is being considered for his younger brother Dzhokhar. This way, the U.S. government will no longer have to worry about him telling what REALLY happened.

This is a perfect example of the outrageous and immense corruption in the U. S. government and its judicial system.

Sandy Hook school shooting HOAX

The Sandy Hook elementary school shooting was also a hoax. No one died in that government-perpetrated false flag attack either. It was orchestrated as yet another step in the government's plan for gun control. Adam Lanza, the supposed young gunman who was, according to the police, murdered by them, will also never be able to speak the truth about the incident – if indeed such a person ever existed in the first place.

Assassination of Robert Kennedy

A young man with the unlikely name of Sirhan Sirhan was arrested, tried, and convicted for the murder of Robert Kennedy, who at that time was running for President of the United States. The U.S. CIA and the Israeli Mossad had, just a couple of years before, assassinated Robert's brother, President John Kennedy, and most certainly did not want Robert in the White House where he would have access to private information. They had to kill Bobby Kennedy. Sirhan Sirhan was their innocent patsy.

Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr (real name Michael King)

Martin Luther King Jr. was a Communist rabble-rousing serial adulterer who had been recruited by the FBI to promote race riots between the blacks and the whites. When he had outlived his usefulness, they assassinated him and blamed it on innocent James Earl Ray, a drifter who had been in and out of prison most of his life. He was born in Alton, Illinois and lived much of his life in Missouri. Neither of those states are necessarily hotbeds of bigotry against blacks. No motive has ever been established for James Earl Ray's supposed assassination of Martin Luther King, and even the King family has publicly stated, as well as directly told Ray, that they do NOT believe he murdered Martin Luther King, Jr.

Now, Everyone's a criminal

*In Utah, Washington and Colorado, it is a crime to collect rainwater on your own property.

*Refusing to have your child, who has cancer, poisoned with chemotherapy or burned with radiation, is a crime, often resulting in the removal of one's child from the home, and prison time for the parents.

*Dr. Paul Offit, atheistic Jew and vaccine developer, wants to make it a crime for parents to refuse vaccinations for their children on religious grounds – or ANY grounds. He, and apparently the California legislature as well, wants to mandate that all parents participate in the maiming and killing of their own children with useless and extremely dangerous vaccinations.

*The government has already passed legislation to make it legal for them to kill Christians – just because they're Christians. See this link:
<http://www.takebackourrights.org/docs/Christians-full%20page.html>

*Once the cashless society is in place in America (already 95% of ALL transactions are cashless in the U.S.), it will be against the law to barter. It will be punishable by prison time. Every transaction must be electronic and traceable by the government.

*The U.S. government is trying to make all supplements available ONLY by prescription.

*In California, and many other states, it is against the law to treat a cancer patient with any treatment other than Poisonous chemotherapy, Burning radiation, or Mutilating surgery. If a doctor does use any other method of treatment, he or she will lose her medical license.

*It is against the law to feed the homeless in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

*Bail-ins: When the next banking crisis hits – and it will be soon – the banks now have legal authority to bail themselves out by using your checking and savings accounts, which have now been declared “unsecured debt.” They will just, plain and simple, confiscate your bank accounts and use them as their own.

*And there are hundreds of executive orders that have been signed by numerous U.S. Presidents. The list below shows how the numbers have grown.

They involved virtually everything you own and do, and allow the government to take everything from you.

Jade Helm is coming – looks like the dry run for the eventual declaration of Martial Law!

From July 15th to September 15th of 2015, the U.S. military will be conducting a massive military drill throughout 10 states in an operation entitled Jade Helm.

This rather alarming drill across the entire American Southwest will include the US Army’s Green Berets, US Marines Special Ops Command, US Navy Seals, and US Air Force Special Ops Command.

The stated purpose of the drill contradicts how this unprecedented exercise will actually be carried out.

Combine this with the document labeling entire U.S. states as ‘hostile’ leaves one with a sinking feeling.

Operation Jade Helm: Massive Military Drill Across 10 States For “Unconventional Warfare”

Stated Purpose Of Jade Helm

According to the document:

“Jade Helm is a challenging eight-week joint military and Interagency (IA) Unconventional Warfare (UW) exercise conducted throughout Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Nevada, Utah and Colorado.”

UPDATE: Mississippi, Florida and Louisiana have now been added to the list, bringing the total number of states participating to 10.

From Dave Hodges:

The term, “unconventional warfare (UW)” makes it clear that this exercise is not dealing with a Russian-backed “Red Dawn” invasion of the Southwestern United States by Russian backed Latin American partners.

UW speaks to the guerrilla warfare (asymmetrical) nature of the anticipated and rehearsed conflict. Subsequently, it can be conclusively stated that Jade Helm is not preparing for a Red Dawn invasion, rather, they are preparing for a Red, White and Blue invasion.

This is a massive rehearsal for martial law implementation as well as implementing the proverbial and much rumored Red and Blue List and the “snatch and grab” extractions of key resistance figures from the Independent Media as well as uncooperative political figures.

The sinister sounding caption ‘Mastering The Human Domain’ refers to the use of the military to engender trust in order to control “the totality of the physical, cultural, and social environments that influence human behavior.”

However, these drill will be carried out between 11 pm and 4 am. How much interaction will they achieve during those hours to practice their trust-building skills?

Invading and conquering a country is a lot easier than maintaining it under your rule. This appears to be a practiced study in modern domination of cultures....how to use your soldiers as counselors to help keep the people of your conquered land subservient.

It seems now ‘infiltration’ exercises will be incorporated in the drills, from Infowars:

A Houston Chronicle report reveals that soldiers will attempt to blend in with the local population in an effort to test the effectiveness of infiltration techniques. Residents will be advised to report “suspicious activity” during the exercise.

“They’re going to set up cells of people and test how well they’re able to move around without getting too noticed in the community,” said Roy Boyd, chief deputy with the Victoria County Sheriff’s Office. “They’re testing their abilities to basically blend in with the local environment and not stand out and blow their cover.”

By directly involving unwitting members of the local population, this aspect of the drill contradicts the Army's assertion that, “The public can expect nothing much different from their day-to-day activities since much of exercise will be conducted in remote areas.”

Jim Stewart, chief deputy with the Brazos County Sheriff's Office, told the Chronicle that the designation of Texas as “hostile territory” was merely a way of setting up a role playing exercise under which soldiers operate behind enemy lines. <http://www.truthandaction.org/operation-jade-helm-massive-military-drill-across-7-states-unconventional-warfare/2/>

The Trouble is Already Here!

It is obvious that major trouble is already here. The forces that have taken over the U.S. and the world are too great for us mere mortals to combat. They are the forces of Satan and his agents – those who run our government and the world. The only One who can counteract this satanic force is Jesus Christ.

Our only hope to make it through this coming time of trouble and utter chaos in the U.S. and the world is to have the peace of Jesus Christ.

“Unfortunately, we are usually blind to the very things that make for our own peace. God holds us accountable for what we refuse to see or are unable to see because of our sin. And “now they are hidden from your eyes’ because you have never completely yielded your nature to Him.” Oswald Chambers, My Utmost for His Highest, April 3

When we “walk through the valley of the shadow of death,” (Ps 32:4) how wonderful it will be to know assuredly that He IS controlling our life!
